A MESSAGE FROM OUR CHAIRMAN

VISH TADIMETY
Chairman and CEO

A Message from our Chairman

"I believe in Warren Buffett's statement that in looking for people to hire, you look for three qualities: INTEGRITY, INTELLIGENCE, and ENERGY. And if you don't have the first, the other two will kill you. This is true. I have never seen a person that lacks integrity and ethics, get far in life."

"We only want employees who agree to our core values and ethics and honesty."

"It takes 20 years to build a reputation and five minutes to ruin it. If you think about that, you'll do things differently."

Doing Business Fairly and Honestly

Gifts and Hospitality

Our principle is always clear: we do not accept or provide gifts, favors, or entertainment if the intent is to influence a business decision.

Business gifts and hospitality are sometimes used in the normal course of business activity. However, if offers of gifts or hospitality (including entertainment or travel) are frequent or of substantial value, they may create the perception of, or an actual conflict of interest or an 'illicit payment'. Therefore, gifts and hospitality given or received should be modest in value and appropriate, and in compliance with our organization's gifts and hospitality policy.

As a general rule, we may accept gifts or hospitality from a business associate, only if such a gift:

- Has modest value and does not create a perception (or an implied obligation) that the giver is entitled to preferential treatment of any kind.
- Would not influence, or appear to influence, our ability to act in the best interest of our organization.
- Would not embarrass the organization or the giver if disclosed publicly.

The following gifts are never appropriate and should never be given or accepted:

- Gifts of cash or gold or other precious metals, gems or stones.
- Gifts that are prohibited under applicable law.
- Gifts in the nature of a bribe, payoff, kickback or *facilitation payment.
- Gifts that are prohibited by the gift giver's or recipient's organization.

- Gifts in the form of services or other non-cash benefits (e.g. a promise of employment).

(*Facilitation' payment is a payment made to secure or speedup routine legal government actions, such as issuing permits or releasing goods held in customs.)

Bribery and Corruption

Our employees and those representing us, including agents and intermediaries, shall not, directly or indirectly, offer or receive any illegal or improper payments or comparable benefits that are intended or perceived to obtain undue favors for the conduct of our business.

Fundamental Responsibility

CyberTech has a fundamental responsibility to ensure that customers have faith in the quality of our services and products. It is the primary responsibility of every employee to make sure that our services and products are consistently of the highest quality.

Our responsibilities:

- Each of us must ensure that we follow our rigorous product safety and quality standards.
- It is the job of every employee to make sure that consumers get what they expect and pay for.
- Do not create misleading impressions in any advertising, marketing, sales materials or presentations.
- Do not make false or illegal claims about competitors or their services and products.
- Promise what you can deliver and deliver on what you promise.

Integrity of Information and Assets

During the course of our business operations, we often have access to personal information related to customers and others. While protecting this information may now be a legal requirement, for us at CyberTech, data privacy has always been a matter of trust and respect for others. We respect the personal information of our customers and others. Protecting their privacy is very important to us.

- Our employees shall not make any willful omissions or material misrepresentation that would compromise the integrity of our records, internal or external communications and reports, including the financial statements.
- Our employees and directors shall seek proper authorization prior to disclosing organization or business-related information, and such disclosures shall be made in accordance with our organization's media and communication policy. This includes disclosures through any forum or media, including social media.
- Our employees shall ensure the integrity of personal data or information provided by them to our organization. We shall safeguard the privacy of all such data or information given to us in accordance with applicable organization policies or law.
- Our employees shall respect and protect all confidential information and intellectual property of our organization.

- Our employees shall promptly report the loss, theft or destruction of any confidential information or intellectual property and data of our organization or that of any third party.
- Our employees shall use all organization assets, tangible and intangible, including computer and communication equipment, for the purpose for which they are provided and in order to conduct our business. Such assets shall not be misused. We shall establish processes to minimize the risk of fraud, and misappropriation or misuse of our assets.
- We shall comply with all applicable anti-money laundering, anti-fraud and anti-corruption laws and we shall establish processes to check for and prevent any breaches of such laws.

Insider Trading

Our employees must not indulge in any form of insider trading nor assist others, including immediate family, friends or business associates, to derive any benefit from access to and possession of price sensitive information that is not in the public domain. Such information would include information about our organization, our group organizations, our clients and our suppliers. Employees indulging in the same are liable for penal actions under the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015.

Intellectual Property

The Intellectual Property (IP) of the organization must be protected as a vital business asset. Our IP portfolio includes copyrights, patents, trademarks, service marks, trade secrets, design rights, logos, brands and know-how. We must use our IP focusing on protecting these assets. It is important to ensure that to the extent permitted by law, the rights to all IP created using the organization's time and expense which are within the scope of our duties are assigned to and are the property of the organization. We should promptly disclose any works, inventions or developments we create to obtain legal protection over them.

Family member and close personal relationships

Members of an employee's immediate family and those in a close personal relationship may be considered for employment on the basis of their qualifications and they may be hired if such employment would not create manager-subordinate relationship. If a close personal relationship exists or develops between two employees, both employees involved must bring this to the attention of their manager and HR manager. Attempts will be made to find a suitable resolution.

Personal investments and corporate opportunities

Employees may not own, either directly or indirectly, a substantial interest in any business that does or seeks to do business with, or is in competition with CyberTech, without the written approval of the Executive Director and/or the Chairman of CyberTech.

Outside Employment

While it is not the intent of CyberTech to unduly restrict the activities of employees on their own time, employees may not work for or receive payments for services from any business that does or seeks to do business with, or is in competition with CyberTech.

AVOIDING CONFLICTS

Avoiding Conflict of Interest

A conflict of interest occurs whenever you have a competing interest that may interfere with your ability to make an objective decision for CyberTech. Personal involvement including financial interests or dealings with competitors, clients, managers, subordinate employees or peers of CyberTech that has the potential to affect the employee's ability to exercise good judgment for CyberTech creates an actual or potential conflict of interest.

Each of us is expected to use good judgment and avoid situations that can lead to even the appearance of a conflict. Conflicts of interest can undermine the trust others place in us and damage our reputation.

It is impossible to describe every potential conflict, which is why CyberTech relies on each of us to uphold the high standard of "Unyielding Integrity" and to seek advice when needed. If you believe a conflict or potential conflict exists, discuss it with your manager, the Legal & Compliance Department or HR.

Some examples of conflicts of interest are:

- Working directly or indirectly either as an officer, employee, consultant or agent for a competitor or client.
- Having a direct or indirect financial interest in a competitor or client or managers, or subordinate employees or peers of CyberTech.
- An intimate personal relationship that develops at the workplace between a manager and subordinate.
- Engaging in an activity that is in competition with CyberTech.
- Using proprietary or confidential information of CyberTech for personal gain.
- Unauthorized use, or disclosure of information about our customers or business partners for personal advantage.

- Accepting an expensive gift, entertainment or business courtesy from a supplier or service provider that could potentially result in a conflict of interest in dealing with the supplier or service provider.
- Offering or issuing shares of CyberTech to officials of an existing or prospective customer organization.
